

THE ALBANIAN FACTOR AND REPUBLIC OF (NORTH) MACEDONIA (1991–2021)*

Mariyana STAMOVA

Received: June 30, 2023

Accepted for publication: August 3, 2023

Abstract: For more than two centuries the Albanian factor in Macedonia has been a dynamically changing reality. The last decade of the 20th century is associated with the international consolidation of the Republic of Macedonia, whereas during the first decade of the 21st century the country faced “significant” international problems and confrontations between the Macedonians and the Albanians, as well as the dilemma of its further steps towards membership in the European and North Atlantic structures.

Keywords: Republic of (North) Macedonia; Ohrid Agreement; Przino Agreement; NATO; EU.

* This article has been written under the auspices of the academic project “Ethnic, Religious and Minority Issues on the Balkans in 20th and 21st Centuries” of the Institute for Balkan Studies and Center for Thracology “Prof. Alexandre Fol” of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences (№2412130 in the Bulgarian Current Research Information System of the National Center for Information and Documentation (NACID), available at: <https://cris.nacid.bg/public/project-preview/15206>.

 Institute of Balkan Studies and Center of Thracology, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences, Sofia, Bulgaria. marianastamova@yahoo.com.